Claremon Limited
STANDARD CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT (revised 2020)

In these conditions, 'electronic file' means any text, illustration or other matter supplied to Claremon in digitised form.

1. Price variation Estimates are based on Claremon's current costs of production and, unless otherwise agreed, are subject to amendment on or at anytime after acceptance to meet any rise or fall in such costs.
2. Tax Claremon reserves the right to charge the amount of any value added tax payable whether or not included on the estimate or invoice.
3. Preliminary work All work carried out, whether experimentally or otherwise, at customer's request shall be charged.
4. Copy A charge may be made to cover any additional work involved where copy supplied is not clear and legible.
5. Electronic files (a) It is the customer's responsibility to maintain a copy of any original electronic file.
(b) Claremon shall not be responsible for checking the accuracy of supplied input from an electronic file unless otherwise agreed.
(c) Without prejudice to clause 6, if an electronic file is not suitable for outputting on equipment normally adequate for such purposes without adjustment or other corrective action Claremon may make a charge for any resulting additional cost incurred.
6. Proofs Proofs of all work may be submitted for customer's approval and Claremon shall incur no liability for any errors not corrected by the customer in proofs so submitted. Customer's alterations and additional proofs necessitated thereby shall be charged extra. When style, type or layout is left to Claremon's judgement, changes therefrom made by the customer shall be charged extra.
7. Colour proofs Due to differences in equipment, paper, inks and other conditions between colour proofing and production runs, a reasonable variation in colour between colour proofs and the completed job will be deemed acceptable unless otherwise agreed.
8. Variations in quantity Every endeavour will be made to deliver the correct quantity ordered, but estimates are conditional upon margins of 5 percent for work in one colour only and 10 per cent for other work being allowed for overs or shortage (4 per cent and 8 per cent respectively for quantities exceeding 50,000) the same to be charged or deducted.
9. Delivery and payment (a) Delivery of work shall be accepted when tendered and thereupon, or if earlier on notification that the work has been completed, payment shall become due.
(b) Unless otherwise specified the price is for delivery of the work to the customer's address as set out in the estimate. A charge may be made to cover any extra costs involved for delivery to a different address.
(c) Should expedited delivery be agreed an extra may be charged to cover any overtime or any other additional costs involved.
(d) Should work be suspended at the request of or delayed through any default of the customer for a period of 14 calendar days Claremon shall then be entitled to payment for work already carried out, materials specially ordered and other additional costs including storage.
(e) Where it is agreed that goods are held in stock the delivery.
10. Storage of goods Any goods at any time that are not delivered but are held against the customer's order at Claremon's premises or distribution centre until such time that the customer requests delivery of goods.
(a) Unless otherwise agreed the goods will be invoiced immediately; and
(b) Upon receipt of an invoice the goods are to be payable in accordance with the usual payment terms.
(c) Unless otherwise agreed, goods held against any order will be stored for a period of 3 months, after which time they will be delivered or destroyed and Claremon shall be entitled to payment in full.
(d) Claremon shall be entitled to payment for any costs associated with movement, storage or destruction of goods through default or delay by the customer.
11. Ownership and risk (a) The risk in all goods delivered in connection with the work shall pass to the customer on delivery.
(b) Goods supplied by Claremon remain Claremon's property until the customer has paid for them and discharged all other debts owing to Claremon.
(c) If the customer becomes insolvent (as set out in clause 17) and the goods have not been paid for in full Claremon may take the goods back and, if necessary, enter the customer's premises to do so, or to inspect the goods.
(d) If the customer shall sell the goods before they have been paid for in full he shall hold the proceeds of sale on trust for Claremon in a separate account until any sum owing to Claremon has been discharged from such proceeds.
12. Claims Advice of damage, delay or loss of goods in transit or of non-delivery must be given in writing to Claremon and the carrier within three clear days of delivery (or, in the case of non-delivery, within 28 days of notification of despatch of the goods) and any claim in respect thereof must be made in writing to Claremon and the carrier within seven clear days of delivery (or, in the case of non-delivery, within 42 days of notification of despatch). All other claims must be made in writing to Claremon within 28 days of delivery. Claremon shall not be liable in respect of any claim unless the aforementioned requirements have been complied with except in any particular case where the customer proves that (i) it was not possible to comply with the requirements and (ii) advice (where required) was given and the claim made as soon as reasonably possible.
13. Liability (a) Claremon shall not be liable for indirect loss or third party claims occasioned by delay in completing the work or for any loss to the customer arising from delay in transit, whether as a result of Claremon's negligence or otherwise.
(b) Insofar as is permitted by law where work is defective for any reason, including negligence, Claremon's liability (if any) shall be limited to rectifying such defect. Where Claremon performs its obligations to rectify defective work under this condition the customer shall not be entitled to any further claim in respect of the work done nor shall the customer be entitled to treat delivery thereof as a ground for repudiating the contract, failing to pay for the work or cancelling further deliveries.
(c) Nothing in these conditions shall exclude Claremon's liability for death or personal injury as a result of its negligence.
14. Standing material (a) Any materials owned by Claremon and used by him in the production of type, plates, and the like shall remain his exclusive property. Such items when supplied by the customer shall remain the customer's property.
(b) Type may be distributed and lithographic or photogravure film and plates, tapes, disks or other work effaced immediately after the order is executed unless written arrangements are made to the contrary. In the latter event, rent may be charged.
(c) Claremon shall not be required to download any digital data from his equipment or supply the same to the customer on disk, tape or by any communication link unless written arrangements are made to the contrary.
15. Customer's property (a) Customer's property and all property supplied to Claremon by or on behalf of the customer shall while it is in the possession of the Claremon or in transit to or from the customer be deemed to be at customer's risk unless otherwise agreed and the customer should insure accordingly.
(b) Claremon shall be entitled to make a reasonable charge for the storage of any customer's property left with Claremon before receipt of the order or after notification to the customer of completion of the work.
16. Materials supplied by the customer (a) Claremon may reject any film, disks, paper, plates or other materials supplied or specified by the customer which appear to him to be unsuitable. Additional cost incurred if materials are found to be unsuitable during production may be charged except that if the whole or any part of such additional cost could have been avoided but for unreasonable delay by Claremon in ascertaining the unsuitability of the materials then that amount shall not be charged to the customer.
(b) Where materials are so supplied or specified, Claremon will take every care to secure the best results, but responsibility will not be accepted for imperfect work caused by defects in or unsuitability of materials so supplied or specified.
(c) Quantities of materials supplied shall be adequate to cover normal spoilage.
17. Insolvency Without prejudice to other remedies, if the customer becomes insolvent (namely, being a company is deemed to be unable to pay its debts or has a winding up petition issued against it or has a receiver, administrator or administrative receiver appointed to it or being a person commits an act of bankruptcy or has a bankruptcy petition issued against him) Claremon shall have the right not to proceed further with the contract or any other work for the customer and be entitled to charge for work already carried out (whether completed or not) and materials purchased for the customer, such charge to be an immediate debt due to him. Any unpaid invoices shall become immediately due for payment.
18. General Lien Without prejudice to other remedies, in respect of all unpaid debts due from the customer Claremon shall have a general lien on all goods and property in his possession (whether worked on or not) and shall be entitled on the expiration of 14 days' notice to dispose of such goods or property as agent for the customer in such manner and at such price as he thinks fit and to apply the proceeds towards such debts, and shall when accounting to the customer for any balance remaining be discharged from all liability in respect of such goods or property.
19. Illegal matter (a) Claremon shall not be required to print any matter which in his opinion is or may be of an illegal or libellous nature or an infringement of the proprietary or other rights of any third party.
(b) Claremon shall be indemnified by the customer in respect of any claims, costs and expenses arising out of any libellous matter or any infringement of copyright, patent, design or of any other proprietary or personal rights contained in any material printed for the customer. The indemnity shall include (without limitation) any amounts paid on a lawyer's advice in settlement of any claim that any matter is libellous or such an infringement.
20. Periodical publications A contract for the printing of a periodical publication may not be terminated by either party unless 13 weeks notice in writing is given in the case of periodicals produced monthly or more frequently or 26 weeks notice in writing is given in the case of other periodicals. Notice may be given at any time but wherever possible should be given after completion of work on any one issue. Nevertheless Claremon may terminate any such contract forthwith should any sum due thereunder remain unpaid.
21. Recurring service charges Charges for retained services, hosting, portal or site maintenance may not be terminated by either party unless 26 weeks notice in writing is given. Nevertheless Claremon may suspend the provision of any such service forthwith should any sum due thereunder remain unpaid.
22. Divisibility This contract is divisible. Each delivery made hereunder: 1) shall be deemed to arise from a separate contract, and 2) shall be invoiced separately and any invoice for a delivery shall be payable in full in accordance with the terms of payment provided for herein without reference to and notwithstanding any defect or default in delivery of any other installment.
23. Force majeure Claremon shall be under no liability if he shall be unable to carry out any provision of the contract for any reason beyond his reasonable control including (without limiting the foregoing): Act of God; legislation; war; fire; flood; drought; inadequacy or unsuitability of any instructions, electronic file or other data or materials supplied by the customer; failure of power supply; lock-out, strike or other action taken by employees in contemplation or furtherance of a dispute; or owing to any inability to procure materials required for the performance of the contract. During the continuance of such a contingency the customer may by written notice to Claremon elect to terminate the contract and pay for work done and materials used, but subject thereto shall otherwise accept delivery when available.
24. Law These conditions and all other express and implied terms of the contract shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England.
